

Technical Review Panel Member

Curriculum Vitae

Name: Marie Hellouin de Cenival

Nationality: French

Additional languages: English, French, Creole

Expertise: Human Rights, Gender, HIV

Qualifications

Qualification	Institution	Department	Year
Master	Drexel University	Public Health	2010
Bachelor of Arts	La Sorbonne	Linguistics	1989

Employment History

Employer	Position	Place	Year
Self-employed	Independant Consultant	Global	2021 - today
Heartland Alliance International	Regional Director for Sub Saharan Africa (Interim)	Remote	2018 - 2019
Heartland Alliance International	Senior Gender Advisor	Remote	2014 - 2021
Heartland Alliance International	Program Director	Haiti	2010 - 2014
Sidaction	Program Manager	France	2004 - 2009
Act Up Paris	Vice President, International Committee Team Leader	France	1996 - 2002

INSERM (French National Medical Research Institute) Regional Health Observatory	ETAP SUD Study Coordinator	France	2002 – 2003
---	----------------------------	--------	-------------

Relevant Publications

« Expanding access to HIV treatment through community-based organizations», UNAIDS Best Practice Collection, Marie de Cenival, Clemence Prunier-Duparge. Joint Publication by UNAIDS, WHO, SIDACTION, Geneva, August 2005.

http://data.unaids.org/publications/irc-pub06/jc1102-expandaccesstohivtreatm\_en.pdf

"Decrease in Prices of Antiretroviral Drugs for Developing Countries: from Political "Philantropy" to Regulated Markets?" Lucchini, Cisse, Duran, Cenival, Moatti, Economics of AIDS, ANRS, 2003.

<http://apps.who.int/medicinedocs/en/d/Js18253en/>