

Privacy Statement for Registration in Global Fund Governance Meetings October 2021

The Global Fund is committed to respecting the dignity and privacy of people, while balancing such rights with the Global Fund values of transparency and accountability and the ability of the Global Fund to carry out its mission.

1. When does this privacy statement apply?

This privacy statement explains how we collect and use information about you when you register for and participate in Global Fund governance meetings. It also explains the choices and rights available to you.

2. What information will we collect and how will we use it?

The Global Fund will process personal information you provide on the basis of your consent; in this case to facilitate your participation in and manage logistics for governance meetings.

The information we collect about you will be limited to the following: biographical and professional information, including your title, name, nationality, constituency and role, organization and position, as well as contact details, including your phone number and e-mail address.

The information about you will not be shared with any other person or entity.

3. How long will we keep your information?

We will retain your information for 5 years.

4. How do we protect your information?

The Global Fund encourages a culture of open communication, but we also want to ensure our information - including personal data - is safe. In the course of its operations, the Global Fund obtains, stores and processes large amounts of information, sometimes including data of a personal nature. The Global Fund is committed to respecting the dignity and privacy of individuals, while balancing such rights with the Global Fund values of transparency and accountability and the ability of the Global Fund to carry out its mission. The basic concept of personal data protection is to protect certain rights of individuals to control what information about them is available to third parties and how such data is then used or shared. In order to help us achieve this aim, the Global Fund has policies in place for data governance, privacy and information security, including procedural and technical control measures, aligning with ISO 27001 information security best practices.

For further information on how the Global Fund collects and uses personal data, please read the Global Fund's Privacy Statement on our website.

(<https://www.theglobalfund.org/en/legal/privacy-statement/>).

You may choose not to provide your personal information. In which case, it may not be possible to facilitate your participation in Global Fund governance meetings.

5. Whom should you contact if you have questions?

You may request at any time that your personal information be corrected or deleted. We invite you to contact personaldataprotection@theglobalfund.org if you have questions about your personal information.

We will endeavor to respond to your request as soon as reasonably practicable. For your protection, we must verify your identity before implementing your request. If we are unable to verify your identity, we may not be able to implement the request for security reasons. In some cases, we may need to retain certain information where important public interests require, such as the safety and security of individuals; the rights and freedoms of others; the integrity of audit, investigation, arbitral or judicial processes; and/or recordkeeping or legal purposes.

6. Privileges and immunities

Nothing in or related to this privacy statement may be construed as a waiver, express or implied, of the privileges and immunities accorded to the Global Fund under international law, including international customary law, any international conventions, treaties or agreements, or any national laws.
