

Technical Review Panel Member

Curriculum Vitae

Name: William (Marty) Makinen
 Nationality: USA
 Languages: English and French
 Area of Expertise: SISF

Qualifications

Qualification	Institution	Department	Year
BA	Kalamazoo College, Kalamazoo, Michigan, USA	Economics	1973
MA	University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA	Economics	1975
PhD	University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, Michigan, USA	Economics	1979

Employment History

Employer	Position	Place	Year
Milken Institute School of Public Health, George Washington University	Adjunct Professor	Washington, DC, USA	2020-present
Results for Development Institute	Executive Vice President	Washington, DC, USA	2008-2019
Abt Associates Inc.	Vice President and Fellow	Bethesda, Maryland, USA	1985-2007

Consultancies and Committees Monitoring Independent Review Committee, GAVI, 2009-2014

Publications

Cali, J, Makinen, M, and Derriennic, Y, “Emerging Lessons from the Development of Health Financing Strategies in Eight Developing Countries”, Health Systems and Reform, Volume 4, 2018—Issue 2.

Thomas, S, Makinen, M, Blanchet, N, and Krusell, K, “Engaging the Private Sector in Primary Health Care to Achieve Universal Coverage”, Joint Learning Network for Universal Health Coverage, Washington, DC, 2016.

Frankel, S, Roland M, Makinen M, “Costs, Cost-Effectiveness, and Financial Sustainability of Community-based Management of Acute Malnutrition in Northern Nigeria”, Results for Development Institute, Washington, DC, 2015.

Kaddar M, Schmitt S, Makinen M, Milstien J, “Global support for new vaccine implementation in middle-income countries”, Vaccine, 2013.

Makinen M, Kaddar M, Molldrem V, Wilson L, “New Vaccine Adoption in Lower-Middle Income Countries”, Health Policy and Planning, 2012.

Makinen M, Deville L, and Folsom A, “Private Health Sector Assessment in the Republic of Congo”, The World Bank, Washington, DC 2012.

Makinen M, Sealy S, Bitran R, Adjei S, and Muñoz R, “Private Health Sector Assessment in Ghana”, The World Bank, Washington, DC, 2011.

Areas of Expertise: Health financing, health economics, health systems.