General information

CCM Orientation program for CCMs

The Global Fund Secretariat is working in close collaboration with the USAID Leadership, Management, and Governance (LMG) project to develop an orientation/induction program for CCM members that will be used by CCMs worldwide.

The purpose of the CCM orientation program is to improve CCM performance by providing the CCM members with the knowledge and skills they need to effectively carry out their role and responsibilities.

The following are the three components of the orientation program:

A. Introduction - briefing on the CCM Orientation Program
B. Core Content for CCMs – which includes:
   1) eLearning content related to eligibility, performance, good governance practices, functions, sub structures, and responsibilities
   2) Face to face component (facilitator guide with practical examples exercises and case studies)
C. Thematic Modules
   eLearning content related to human rights, gender, climate change and health, key populations, community systems strengthening, and resilient and sustainable systems for health

Technical Assistance for facilitate the face-to-face component of the Orientation program for CCMs

In accordance with the membership renewal calendar, the CCM Hub systematically will send one consultant to each CCM, to conduct the face-to-face (F2F) component of this program. Participant completion of the eLearning component will be a prerequisite for the F2F component.

The objective of the F2F component is to ensure that every new CCM member has internalized and can apply the contents of the self-administered eLearning component.

The F2F component will be based in practical examples and case studies for applying the theory and content of the eLearning. Facilitators will have at their disposal a “facilitator guide” containing the anticipated program, key content, relevant examples, and exercises to apply the eLearning content.
